

Resolution of the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission Honoring John Litton Clark

WHEREAS, John Litton Clark, a resident of Sampson County North Carolina, an Eagle Scout and member of Order of the Arrow, and an avid sportsman and wildlife conservationist; and

WHEREAS, John Litton Clark served with utmost distinction as Chairman of Big Game Committee, and then as Chairman of the Wildlife Resources Commission where he dedicated himself to conservation of North Carolina's wildlife resources and habitats and opportunities for the public to enjoy them; and

WHEREAS, throughout his tenure, he has consistently advocated for the long-term interests of the Wildlife Resources Commission and future generations of North Carolinians; and

WHEREAS, his character, integrity, and devotion to his family and to our State, has provided a guiding compass; and

WHEREAS, his steady hand on the helm steered the commission through turbulent challenges;

WHEREAS, it is proper that John Litton Clark is recognized for his meritorious service to the people of the great state of North Carolina.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission pays tribute and expresses its profound gratitude to John Litton Clark, for his services rendered to the people of North Carolina and its wildlife resources.

Approved, this the 5th day of October 2017, in an official meeting by the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission.

John Coley, Chairman

Gordon Myers, Executive Director

